MONROE COUNTY EXECUTIVE MAGGIE BROOKS

Proclamation

Founded in 1971, SUNY Empire State College has become one of our region’s finest public higher education institutions.

Over the past 40 years, SUNY Empire State College has truly been at the forefront of innovative adult learning in our region. The college’s faculty and administration have worked to meet the needs of their students with the collective goal of supporting personal growth in order to enrich individual communities throughout New York and surrounding areas.

The college’s recent 2015 vision is a remarkable demonstration of the administration’s ongoing effort to enhance the standards of adult learning. In the coming years, SUNY Empire State College will be making strides to connect learners with their creative and intellectual sides, as well as pioneer initiatives to include all segments of the population with the goal of creating a welcoming atmosphere based on respect and civility.

Today, in recognition of this anniversary milestone, we honor SUNY Empire State College as a shining example of revolutionary adult learning in New York State.

THEREFORE, I, Maggie Brooks, Monroe County Executive, do hereby proclaim Thursday, May 5th, 2011 to be:

SUNY EMPIRE STATE COLLEGE DAY

in Monroe County and congratulate SUNY Empire State College on its many achievements in the educational field.

I HAVE HEREUNTO set my hand this fifth day of May in the year two thousand and eleven.

Maggie Brooks
MONROE COUNTY EXECUTIVE
